“A 34-year force of nature across fine arts, entertainment, and healthcare — driven always by ethics, integrity, and the audacity to create.”

James "JB" Brown is a celebrated innovator, executive producer, composer, consultant, and advocate with over 34 years of trailblazing impact across fine arts, entertainment, and healthcare. A proud son of Brooklyn, New York, JB was educated at Bishop Loughlin Memorial High School, Norfolk State University, and the University of Maryland, College Park, and holds a B.S. from the University of Phoenix, an M.S. from Western Governors University, and dual Honorary Doctorates in Fine Arts and Behavioral & Mental Health Science from Trinity International University of Ambassadors (TIUA).

His industry partnerships span BET, HBO, 20th Century Fox, Island Def Jam, Universal Music Group, BMG, and beyond. A film producer and executive producer, his credits include Making of a Mogul USA on Tubi and Jury of Our Peers on Amazon Prime — which he produced, executive produced, and scored. As Founder of the Sweet Auburn International Film Festival and Founder & President of the Peachtree Village International Film Festival, JB has championed cinema as a vehicle for culture and community elevation. He is currently developing a documentary series based on his Amazon bestseller Beyond the Lens and launching The Wrap Around — a licensed autism education program available for deployment by health and human services organizations nationwide.

A proud son of Brooklyn, New York, JB is guided by a lifelong commitment to the light — choosing to see the glass half full, listening as deeply as he leads, and letting ethics and integrity illuminate every room he walks into.

A devoted philanthropist, JB supports the Silas & Helen T. Brown Children's Foundation, ARJ, LLC, Jasper's House Day Treatment Program (Charlotte, NC & New Orleans, LA), UNICEF, the United Way, Boys & Girls Club, Foundation for the Carolinas, the Mental Health Association of the Central Carolinas, and the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation.

JB Brown is a movement in motion — and his greatest work is still ahead.
